

GO AFTER JESUS
PALM/PASSION SUNDAY

JOHN 12:12-19
MAR 20, 2016

¹² The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. ¹³ So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" ¹⁴ And Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written,

¹⁵ "Fear not, daughter of Zion;

behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!"

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and had been done to him. ¹⁷ The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. ¹⁸ The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign. ¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are gaining nothing. Look, the world has gone after him."

If you watched parade last Thursday on St. Patrick's day, what did you see? maybe people in green, bands and floats
What you saw could have depended on where you looked.

You could look right in front of you, across the street.
could get different view looking down street at those who had already gone by

Or another view looking up street at what was coming.
If looking across street, backdrop would have been businesses who see the parade as way to bring people downtown and support local commerce.

But if you look at what is past, that is at history of parade,
In recent history St. Patrick's day parades have been seen as opportunity for marginalized groups such as gay pride to support their cause, be seen as part of mainstream.
just as looking farther back St. Patrick's day parade was way to support cause of marginalized Irish immigrants being seen as part of mainstream.

Similarly, with Palm Sunday parade, different people looked at it with different perspectives, saw different things.
Those seeing this parade included those in town for Passover, Jesus disciples and the Jewish leaders.
Each one's view influenced by what they see in background.

A GROUP LOOKS ON AT APPARENT BENEFITS

¹²The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. ¹³ So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!"

Backdrop for this parade was Jerusalem, where huge crowd has gathered for Passover.
Jerusalem is where temple is, monument of Jewish identity.
It was also capital of ancient nation of Israel.
Historical background of Passover celebration is Exodus from Egypt, where they had been oppressed people, to freedom and independence.
Recently they have been under control of Roman empire, but not too long ago, they were independent for while and their national symbol, like flag, was palm branch.
Now this crowd has come out to see Jesus.
because of miracles they have heard he did.
One of his miracles, witnessed by a huge crowd was miraculously feeding 5000, which reminded them of manna Israel got in wilderness after Passover.
Many who were there wanted to make Jesus king in hopes he would continue to provide for them.
Some of those may have been in this crowd.
So, what does this crowd see in this parade?
the hope that God, the Lord, would provide for their everyday needs like freedom and food.
We can relate. We also pray for our daily bread.
Today there are also crowds, at political rallies, thinking about how am I doing today in view of backdrop of latest news about terrorism, immigration, stock market, etc.
As we come to worship, like those at Passover, our thoughts and prayers include immediate concerns,
like our kids, health, jobs, paying the bills, relationships with coworkers and friends.
These things are in front of our faces every day and are important to God who cares for us every day.

But there is also more, as there is more to Passover parade because daily concerns point to deeper issues & problems.
Sometimes even celebrations include hints something is not quite right in the long run, like happy birth of a baby but with a birth defect.
or wedding of bride or groom whose behavior sometimes shows hints of being angry or afraid.
At Palm Sunday parade, the odd thing is what Jesus is riding, because of which...

A GROUP LOOKS BACK TO IMPORTANT BLESSINGS

¹⁴ And Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written,

¹⁵ "Fear not, daughter of Zion;

behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!"

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and had been done to him. ¹⁷ The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. ¹⁸ The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

Some watching this parade are looking back to the past.

Just recently, just over the hill in Bethany, Jesus has raised Lazarus from the dead.

Within big crowd at Passover is small crowd that saw it.

Everyone is still talking about it.

This is one of big reasons people are here to see Jesus.

Not only is he able to provide for needs of daily life.

He is able to give life itself.

But if Jesus is this great, why, in parade honoring him, is he riding on a little donkey, not a chariot or a charger?
Even his own disciples, the small group within Jesus' followers, don't understand this until later when they look farther back and remember the prophecy in Zechariah 9 about king coming on young donkey because he is humble, and comes not to overthrow current oppressor and bring personal independence & provide for today but to bring lasting peace to all people.
this is reminiscent of Solomon, whose name means peace, who rode to coronation on his father's donkey because he took kingdom not by force but by right.

Disciples may have been reminded of this verse by Jesus himself when after resurrection he explained from scripture why everything happened as it did.
His coming humbly, carried by a donkey, was just part of his journey to his humiliation on the cross where he was the beast of burden carrying our sins.
He came not just to receive our praise but our punishment because this was the only way to free us not from untrustworthy dictators or demagogues but from temptations & taunts of worse despot: devil.
and sustain our lives not just with daily food but with daily forgiveness.
Yes, he had raised Lazarus from the dead, but he would die again, and then what?
Jesus came not just to help us survive our daily battles but to win the final victory in the great war with all evil.
John points to this in our text as...

¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are gaining nothing. Look, the world has gone after him."

Probably smallest crowd watching parade is Jesus' enemies.
They are not looking back but forward.
They foresee people following Jesus instead of them, but worse, crowds seeing Jesus as a king starting revolt, put down with force by Romans, with result that they lose their positions and possibly all their freedoms and the temple as well.
which is why they go after Jesus as they do, to stop him.
But while they think they are looking at the big picture, they are not looking far enough forward.
When they say whole world has gone after him, they don't realize how true this is.
Jesus has come to save not just you & me & small crowd here from fear and sin so we can have God's love & presence throughout this lifetime but to save everyone in whole history of world and bring us to the crowd before his throne forever.
So we can be part of great crowd from every nation & language dressed in white, holding palm branches in hand, having been brought through the great tribulation.

Crowd following Jesus here shouts words from Psal. 118 which says Blessed is he that comes in name of Lord because it is not man we should either fear or trust but the Lord who will help & deliver from punishment by giving us righteousness in his holy place.
They way we follow Jesus to that holy place is by putting faith in him as our God.
We join those who glorify him who rides on a humble donkey because by his ultimate glorification on the cross he leads us to glory in heaven.
not only by making us able to lead good lives & do right but by giving his life to give us his righteousness.
We are led to receive all this by looking at not just the daily parade going by in front of us where we live & work with the background of current events but by continuing to look back at our baptisms, and look forward to receiving Holy Communion and look daily at God's word in Bible.
This is where we go to meet him and receive his blessings like those in text, where...
